Ericsson Management Consulting is looking for top talents to help shape Ericsson's future

Ericsson Management Consulting - Strategic Programs Practice works closely with Ericsson's global leadership team to deliver breakthrough results through management consulting projects for the company. In addition, the team serves as a unique talent pool for future leaders at Ericsson.

We are currently looking for exceptional individuals to join us and be part of shaping the future of Ericsson and the telecom industry. You will engage in international projects across the Ericsson Group and longer term there are excellent global career opportunities with Ericsson for high performers.

Job description, Business Analyst - Full time

As a Business Analyst you will:

- › Solve key strategic business problems in collaboration with a project team
- › Perform interviews, lead workshops and conduct data analysis
- › Synthesize findings and deliver recommendations to senior executives
- › Interact closely with managers across the Ericsson Group to secure results

Competency profile

- › Excellent academic record with a master's degree or equivalent in Business, Economics and/or Engineering
- › Highly results-oriented
- › Excellent analytical skills
- › Proven team player
- › Demonstrated leadership and communication skills
- › Fluent written and spoken English
- › Prior work experience from management consulting is positive, though not a requirement

You should be able to start the position in Q3-Q4 2012, as newly graduated or with less than one year of professional working experience. You are comfortable interacting with senior executives, excited to build strong consulting and analytical skills and eager to learn about the dynamic telecom industry.

Apply by sending your CV, cover letter and university grades to spp@ericsson.com, subject "Fulltime BA". Applications are screened continuously. Early applications are encouraged. Applications received after March 31st will not be considered.
